

Eric Korenman

B. 1967 New York City, New York

Berkshire resident, Eric Korenman holds a BA from Dartmouth College and MD from Cornell University. He began his professional photography career in 2004. Recent exhibitions have included the Danforth Museum, Brattleboro Museum, Hancock Shaker Village, Hudson Opera House and commissioned works for the boutique hotel, Hotel on North.

Portrait clients have included many celebrity comedians, writers, podcasters and musical celebrities. His portraits have appeared in Vogue, Glamour, UK Glamour, CNN, The Boston Globe, Time Out NY, The Huffington Post and Parade Magazine.

His "Ice Glen Waterfall" is in the permanent collection of the Berkshire Museum.

Korenman's fine artworks draw from mythology, 19th century portraiture and the use of massed objects to examine how abundance and decadence in our culture shape us.
